

ADAIR COUNTY COMMISSION MINUTES
MONDAY, AUGUST 12, 2013

Continued from page 129

Mr. Howe then stated they were working quickly to keep the landowners happy. This would make future easement acquisitions easier and saved money in the long run. Commissioner Pickens asked if the tube had been delivered and everything ready for the Wednesday meeting with MoDOT. Mr. Howe said the tube project was done and had received a good report. Also, that Mr. O'Brien had supplied the fill dirt for the project.

Commissioner Adams asked if the cost of the piling would be less on Campbell Cemetery Way. Mr. Howe said the concrete pier was less.

Commission Adams stated that Normandy Way was over on cost by about $53,000 and wanted to know how much of a savings they had on Campbell Cemetery Way. Mr. Howe said he would try to have the information for them on Wednesday.

Commissioner Adams moved to accept the change order. Commissioner Pickens seconded the motion. All in favor.

The Commission spent the rest of the day attending to County business.

The Adair County Commission adjourned at 4:00 p.m. on August 12, 2013.
