

ADAIR COUNTY COMMISSION MINUTES

TUESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2013

Continued from page 5.

Discussion was held regarding obtaining wireless internet for the Courthouse. Commissioner Pickens said he would contact Matt Holt of the next meeting with TelePlus Solutions who is investigating faster internet options for the County. Perhaps they could also assist the Court System.

Judge Steele excused himself from the budget meeting and asked Matt Holt to discuss the budgets of the Juvenile Justice System. Mr. Holt also included a budget for the Drug Court. He explained the budget requests and stated they were asking for the same amount circuit wide as last year.

The Commission thanked Mr. Holt for his presentation.

The Commission spent the rest of the day working on various areas of the budget. Commissioner Thompson moved to fund $59,000 to the University of Missouri Extension Center. Commissioner Adams seconded the motion with all in favor.

The Commission discussed the funding situation of the Assessor's office. They felt they did not have a choice regarding the $85,000 transfer request of the Adair County Assessor, Donnie Waybill. The transfer will be $35,000 more than in 2012. Commissioner Thompson moved to add the $85,000 transfer to the Assessment Fund. Commissioner Adams seconded the motion with all in favor.

Adair County Treasurer, Lori Smith, finalized her budget requests.

The Adair County Commission adjourned at 4:00 p.m. on January 8, 2013.
